HOMEMADE ARTISAN BREAD

For all bread and pastries, we use only pure flour from a small mill in Augustów. Our bread does not contain preservatives, anticaking agents or any other additives. The long fermentation process and the higher acidity helps digestion and better absorption of the microelements (iron, magnesium, zinc) from the bread and gives a unique taste and texture as well. The high fiber-content benefits the gut microbiota improving well-being and boosting the immune system. Our sourdough bread has low Glycemic Index.
